

Maidenhead

13 Jan 1866

My dear Sir

All the good wishes of the season to you and yours!

I do not reckon you within the limits of the old bills of mortality.

Thank you for the P. O. Order for 10/- Your name (though you do not subscribe it to your note) is down on my list.

It will be almost

as much trouble to move to next door, as to move miles away. I have an old house at Edmonton, rent £80 a year, which I wish some Railway Co. would take off my hands.

Yours very faithfully
J. Payne Collier
